

Virginia Law Foundation – Public Service Internship Program
Revised definition of Eligible Employer for Internships starting Summer 2010

Virginia Law Foundation Public-Service Internships must be served within the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Virginia Law Foundation will provide a list of Eligible Host Organizations. An internship at any organization on the list dated October 9, 2009 is pre-approved for the summer of 2010. Law schools wishing to assign interns to prospective host organization(s) that are not currently listed must seek pre-authorization from the Virginia Law Foundation, by contacting Sharon Tatum, Executive Director, at 804/648-0112 or by email at statum@virginialawfoundation.org.

ELIGIBLE HOST ORGANIZATION APPROVED LISTING (October 9, 2009)

Capital Defender's Office (all Virginia locations)
Central Virginia Legal Aid (all locations)
City of Lynchburg, Community Planning & Development Department
Community Mediation Center (Norfolk)
Community Tax Law Project (Richmond)
Division of Child Support Enforcement (all Virginia locations)
Federal Public Defender's Office (all Virginia locations)
Legal Aid Justice Center (all Virginia locations)
Legal Aid Society of Eastern Virginia (all locations)
Legal Services of Northern Virginia (all locations)
Office of the Commonwealth's Attorney (all Virginia locations)
Public Defender's Office (all Virginia locations)
Rappahannock Legal Services (all locations)
Refugee and Immigration Services (all Virginia locations)
Southwest Virginia Legal Aid Society (all locations)
Virginia Attorney General's Office (statewide)
Virginia Capital Representation Resource Center
Virginia Indigent Defense Commission's Appellate Defender's Office (Richmond)
Virginia Legal Aid Society (all Virginia locations)
Virginia Minors Access Project
Virginia Poverty Law Center (Richmond)