Treatment Writer

Location: Los Angeles CA

Date Posted: 12/19/2007

Description: Development/Production company needs a ghostwriter to convert detailed synopses into treatments. Writer will get some form of credit (ranging from shared story to shared screenplay).

Various writers are working on current projects and completed scripts are into various studios and agencies. However, there are many more concepts that need to be matched up with the proper screenwriters, and I like to give the writer a treatment to facilitate the screenplay process.

Looking for someone with a screenwriting background. Looking for an excellent and efficient writer with a flexible schedule who can take a detailed synopsis and take it to the next level, while creating a treatment that structurally sets up the screenwriting process. Looking for someone who can work quickly under pressure.

Opportunities to write screenplays in addition to treatments may arise in the future, as well as opportunities to bring your own material through the company.

Requirements:

- Screenwriting background
- Knowledge of the film industry
- Creative in nature

Contact: Need a resume and list industry experience. INCLUDE any past or present representation, any credits, any screenwriting education.
